

4273 CORSO LARGE BENCH

The large Corso bench is a flexible seating option that sits beautifully with the large Corso dining table. It has the option of an a seat pad that can add colour and detail. A versatile piece it can be used in any location in the home. Crafted from solid ash with smooth curved edges it is a very tactile piece. Providing seating for 2-3 adults (or more children), it works equally well with the Corso table as it does in a hallway, where you get the beautiful end view, or at the end of a bed, as an elegant alternative to a blanket box. It is available in a broad selection of finishes, with or without a fixed upholstered pad available in a choice of fabrics from the Ercol Collection. Crafted from solid
