

4292 HIGHMOOR EXTENDING DINING TABLE

The Highmoor dining table is a striking modern table with retro undertones and will make a statement in any home. Circles are sculpted into the legs showing the craftsmanship of this table which gives a quintessentially ercol feel to the furniture. The dining table is made of solid ash and can sit with any of the ash chairs in the ercol collection. When closed this table seats 6 and easily extends to seat 6-8 people giving the ability to host more guests. When not in use the leaf stores neatly within the table. The Highmoor extending dining table is available in all ercol ash finishes.
